Houston Texans' Brian Cushing Reveals Second 'Cushing's Corner' at Ellington Field Joint Reserve Base

Raises Over $260,000 at his Second Annual Texans and T-Bones

HOUSTON – (October 19, 2016) – Houston Texans' Inside Linebacker Brian Cushing revealed his second 'Cushing's Corner' at Ellington Field Joint Reserve Base yesterday afternoon.

'Cushing's Corner' is a mobile locker filled with electronics intended to help military members and their families pass time while they retrieve their ID cards.

Cushing introduced his second 'Cushing's Corner' at a press conference and ribbon-cutting ceremony. Following the reveal, Cushing visited with military families.

Just the night before, Cushing welcomed almost 300 guests to The Bell Tower on 34TH for his second annual Texans and T-Bones, raising over $260,000 to benefit the Brian Cushing Foundation.

Jeff Allen, Duane Brown, Max Bullough, Jadeveon Clowney, Quintin Demps, Akeem Dent, Andre Hal, Robert Nelson, Dan Pettinato, Chester Pitts, Kareem Jackson, Johnathan Joseph, Kendall Lamm, Shane Lechler, Greg Mancz, Whitney Mercilus, Corey Moore, Nick Novak, Brock Osweiler, Brian Peters, Tom Savage, John Simon, Jon Weeks, Vince Wilfork and David

Quessenberry joined Cushing and guests for a cocktail reception sponsored by Northwestern Mutual-Houston and dinner to benefit the cause.

Matt Thomas of Sportstalk 790 served as the evening's emcee, while Brian Baumhor of Pacific Coast Auctioneer served as auctioneer during exciting live and silent auctions.

The foundation aims to serve and honor the men and women who protect our country by providing resources and experiences to Houston area veterans and their families. Proceeds from the evening will help fund signature community outreach programs like Operation Holiday Hope and Cushing's Corner.
